

CURRICULUM VITAE

Dariusz Górski

A recognized specialist in capital markets, the banking sector and financial analysis with many years of experience in Polish and international financial institutions.

Career

From May 2019	PKO BP – independent Supervisory Board member
June 2011 - March 2019	Santander Biuro Maklerskie / Dom Maklerski BZ WBK Senior analyst, deputy head of research and as of 2015 Director of the Stock Market Research Department responsible for oversight and the team's products, financial sector analysis and equity market strategy. Held leading positions in the rankings of research analysts published by Parkiet: banking sector #2/3/3 in 2017/16/15, respectively and market strategy #5/2 in 2017/16.
February 2009 – June 2011	Wood & Co Head of the Polish equity market research department responsible for the financial sector, media and equity market strategy
2008	Opera TFI Equity portfolio strategist
2004 - 2008	Deutsche Bank Securities Head of equity market research in the Central European region responsible for the overall product and banking sector. In 2007 the DB Securities team was #1 in the Thomson Extel ranking in the Hungarian/Czech market and #2 in the Polish market while the banking team was #1 in the EMEA Financials category. In 2006 the Polish DB Securities team was #3 in the ranking published by Institutional Investor Magazine (2005: #4) while DB's banking analyst team was #2 (2005: #3).
2001 - 2004	ING Securities Equity analyst covering the entire Polish market with a specialization in the following sectors: banks, commodities (KGHM) and oil companies. In 2004 the research analyst team at ING Securities in Warsaw took third place in the ranking published by the Institutional Investor Magazine, while in 2003 it took first place in this same ranking.
1996 - 2001	JP Morgan/Robert Fleming Equity analyst initially specializing in the food, industrial and IT sectors. As of 1998 a banking sector analyst in Central Europe.
1993 - 1996	Business Management & Finance S.A. Financial analyst and as of 1995 the Project Leader in strategic consulting, mergers and acquisitions, privatization and restructuring (including the bad debt portfolio in the bank BDK S.A.)
1992 - 1993	Caresbac Polska S.A. Financial analyst in one of the first venture capital firms on the Polish market

Education

Graduate of the Warsaw School of Economics holding a master's degree in economics (1987-1993), he completed a course to become an investment advisor and he received a scholarship from Erasmus University in Rotterdam (Holland) in its corporate finance program.