8. The number of members of the Supervisory Board is determined by PKP S.A., which also applies to the election of the Supervisory Board by separate groups pursuant to Article 385 of the Commercial Companies Code (in which case the Supervisory Board may have between five and thirteen members). The personal rights referred to in the preceding sentence shall be exercised by delivering a written statement to the Company.
9. In the event of the expiry of the mandate of any member of the Supervisory Board elected by separate groups pursuant to Article 385 § 3-7 of the Commercial Companies Code, PKP S.A. shall have the personal right to appoint one new member of the Supervisory Board in his or her place. The remaining members of the Supervisory Board shall be appointed by the General Meeting.
10. In the event of the dismissal of the member of the Supervisory Board appointed from among persons elected by employees during their term of office, until the number of members of the Supervisory Board elected by employees is replenished, resolutions of the Supervisory Board shall be valid provided that the Supervisory Board consists of at least five members.
11. The granting of the rights referred to in section 3 above the Company's employees took place in connection with Article 4(4) of the Act on the Commercialization and Restructuring of PKP and the provisions of the Employee Guarantee Pact.
12. A member of the Management Board, proxy, liquidator, branch or plant manager, chief accountant, legal advisor or attorney employed by the company, as well as a person directly subordinate to a member of the Management Board or liquidator, may not simultaneously be a member of the Supervisory Board. The rule expressed in the first sentence shall apply accordingly to members of the management board and liquidators of a subsidiary company or cooperative. A person who meets the requirements specified in Article 19(1)-(3) and (5) of the Act on the Principles of State Property Management may be member of the Supervisory Board, subject to the requirement to obtain a positive opinion of the Council for Companies with State Treasury and State Legal Entities Participation, referred to in Article 24(1) of the Act on the Principles of State Property Management, the requirement to meet the conditions specified in Article 19(1)(2) and (4) of the Act on the Management of State Property, do not apply to employee representatives elected to the Supervisory Board.

- 12a. The competent authority or entity referred to § 19 selections 1-3 of the Statue shall be obliged to take immediate action to dismiss a member of the Supervisory Board who does not meet the requirements specified in the Statue, with the proviso that the obligation to take immediate action to dismiss a member of the Supervisory Board shall not apply to a member of the Supervisory Board appointed by an entity other than an entity authorized to exercise rights attached to shares owned by the State Treasury, a state legal entity, a company with the participation of the State Treasury or a state legal entity, or a company in relation to which a company with toe participation of the State Treasury or a state legal entity is a dominant entrepreneur within the meaning of Article 4(3) of the Act of February 16, 2007, on competition and customer protection.
13. A member of the Supervisory Board appointed in accordance with section 3 above may also be dismissed for important reasons by the General Meeting.
14. Considering that the bond connecting each member of the Supervisory Board with the Company constitutes a specific organizational-corporate relationship, the purpose of which is to exercise due diligence in the ongoing supervision of the Company, resulting in the obligation of a member of the Supervisory Board to act with due diligence, applying a higher standard of care covering the professional nature of the performance of duties in the supervisory body, each member of the Supervisory Board:
 - 1) Is obliged to exercise their rights and perform their duties personally, with the utmost professional diligence, subject to the provisions of the Articles of Association and relevant legal regulations;
 - 2) May not take any action or perform any activities that would be contrary to their duties or could raise suspicion of bias on the part of the member of the Supervisory Board or favoring their private interests;
 - 3) Is obliged to keep confidential any information constituting a trade secret of the Company and any documents provided to a member of the Supervisory Board in connection with the exercise of their rights and obligations on the Supervisory Board, and not to disclose them to other persons, unless such an obligation arises from mandatory provisions of law.
15. A member of the Supervisory Board shall submit their resignation in writing to the Company, for the attention of the Chairman or Vice-Chairman of the Supervisory Board.

1. At least two members of the Supervisory Board elected by the General Meeting should meet the criteria of independence from the Company and entities having significant connections with the Company, as specified in:
 - 1) § 21 of the Articles of Association;
 - 2) Annex II to the EC Recommendation;

- 3) Good Practices of Companies Listed in the Warsaw Stock Exchange;
 - 4) The Act on Statutory Auditors.
2. Candidates for independent member of the Supervisory Board shall submit to the Company a written statement confirming that they meet the independence criteria specified in section 1. A member of the Supervisory Board shall be obliged to immediately inform the Company in writing of any failure to meet any of the independence criteria. Within two weeks of becoming aware of the failure of an independent member of the Supervisory Board to meet the independence criteria, the Management Board shall convene a General Meeting in order to change the composition of the Supervisory Board.
 3. Only shareholders of the Company who have the right to vote at General Meeting on shares representing no more than 10% of the total number of votes in the Company are entitled to nominate candidates for members of the Supervisory Board referred to in selection 1 above.

1. A member of the Supervisory Board elected pursuant to § 20 above shall meet the following independence criteria:
 - 1) The person may not be affiliated with the Company (except for membership in the Supervisory Board), a person related to the parent company or subsidiary of the Company, or to a subsidiary of the parent company of the Company, or a person related to an entity in which the Company holds more than 10% of the share capital;
 - 2) The person may not be a relative or relative by marriage up to the second degree of the person referred to in point 1) above;
 - 3) The person may not be a relative or relative by marriage up to the second degree of a shareholder of the Company holding more than 5% of the total votes in the Company, nor may they be such a shareholder;
 - 4) This person may not be a person related to any shareholder of the Company holding more than 5% of the total votes in the Company, or to a parent or subsidiary of such a shareholder, or to a subsidiary of the parent of such a shareholder;
 - 5) This person may not be a relative or relative by marriage up to the sound degree of the person referred to in point 4) above.
2. For the purposes of this paragraph, the term „related person” means a person who:
 - 1) Is a member of the statutory bodies of a legal person, and in the case of a partnership, also a partner or general partner;
 - 2) Is in an employment relationship, contract of mandate, of other legal relationship of a similar nature with the entity with which the relationship is established. The above applies to persons who, within the last three years prior to their appointment to the Supervisory Board, were in a employment relationship, contract of mandate, or other legal relationship of a similar nature with the Company.
3. For the purposes of this paragraph, a parent entity and a subsidiary entity shall be understood, respectively, as a person meeting to conditions specified in Article 4 § 1(4) of the Commercial Companies Code.

The Supervisory Board, which, as a result of the expiry of the mandates of certain members of the Supervisory Board, has fewer members than specified in § 19(8) above, but at least five, is capable of adopting valid resolutions.

§ 23

1. For resolutions of the Supervisory Board to be valid, all members must be invited to its meeting and at least half of its members, including the Chairman or Vice-Chairman of the Supervisory Board, must be present.
2. Resolutions of the Supervisory Board shall be adopted by a simple majority of votes. In the event of an equal number of votes “for” and “against”, the Chairman of the Supervisory Board shall have the casting vote.
3. Resolutions of the Supervisory Board on the suspension of members of the Management Board or the Management Board require the consent of the Chairman of the Supervisory Board.
4. Meetings of the Supervisory Board shall be convened by the Chairman, with the proviso that the first meeting of the Supervisory Board of the new term of office shall be convened by the Management Board of the Company no later than within 14 days from the date of appointment of the Supervisory Board of the new term of office; until the election of the Chairman of the Supervisory Board for the new term of office, the first meeting of the Supervisory Board shall be chaired by the President of the Management Board.
5. If the Chairman of the Supervisory Board is unable to convene a meeting, the meeting of the Supervisory Board shall be convened in accordance with the Rules of Procedure of the Supervisory Board.
6. The detailed rules of procedure of the Supervisory Board are set out in the Rules of Procedure of the Supervisory Board.

§ 24

1. The Supervisory Board shall hold its meeting at least once every two months.
2. Members of the Supervisory Board may participate in the adoption of resolutions of the Supervisory Board by casting their votes in writing through another member of the Supervisory Board. Voting in writing may not apply to matters included in the agenda of a meeting of the Supervisory Board.
3. Resolutions of the Supervisory Board may be adopted in writing or by means of direct remote communication.

1. The Supervisory Board shall exercise ongoing supervision over the Company’s activities in all areas of its operations.
2. The Supervisory Board shall operate on the basis of its own rules of procedure.
3. In addition to matters reserved by the provisions of the Commercial Companies Code or other laws, the Supervisory Board shall be responsible for:
 - 1) (deleted);

- 2) Granting consent for the Management Board to pay an advance payment towards the dividend expected at the end of the financial year;
- 3) Appointing and dismissing the President of the Management Board and other members of the Management Board in the case referred to in § 14(3);
- 4) Appointing and dismissing the President of the Management Board on the terms specified in § 14(4) and (6);

VIII. FINAL AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

1. The personal rights granted to PKP S.A. referred to in § 14(4) and § 19 shall always apply when PKP S.A. holds shares representing at least 25% of the Company's share capital.

2. In the event of the liquidation of PKP S.A. and provided the State Treasury holds shares representing at least 25% of the Company's share capital, the State Treasury shall have the following personal rights:
 - 1) The right to nominate candidates for the position of President of the Management Board within the scope specified in § 14(4);
 - 2) The right to appoint and dismiss members of the Supervisory Board within the scope specified in § 19(2) and (9);
 - 3) The right to appoint the Chairman of the Supervisory Board within the scope specified in § 19(5); and
 - 4) The right to determine the number of members of the Supervisory Board within the scope specified in § 19(8).
3. In the event of expiry or waiver of personal rights, the provisions of these Articles of Association concerning expired personal rights shall be replaced by the relevant provisions of the Commercial Companies Code.
4. Subject to the provisions of this selection 4, elections of members of bodies in accordance with the procedure specified in § 14, § 19, and § 20 shall take place for the first time in connection with the expiry of the mandates of members of the Management Board and Supervisory Board performing these functions on the Registration Date, whereby, as of the Registration Date, members of the Supervisory Board performing this function on that date, other than representatives of the Company's employees, shall be deemed to have been appointed by PKP S.A. in accordance with the procedure specified in § 19(2). With six months of the Registration Date, but no later than two months after the first listing of the Company's shares on the main market of the Warsaw Stock Exchange, the composition of the Supervisory Board should be supplemented so that the requirements regarding the number of its members specified in § 19(1) sentence 1 and § 20(1) are met; for this purpose, the Management Board shall convene a General Meeting.
5. The term of office of the members of the Management Board performing their functions on the Registration Date shall commence on the Registration Date and expire on the third anniversary of the Registration Date. The term of office of the members of the Supervisory Board performing their functions on the Registration Date shall be extended and shall expire on the third anniversary of the Registration Date.
6. The provisions of § 14(5) shall enter into force on the date of the first listing of the Company's shares on the main market of the Warsaw Stock Exchange.
7. Any amendment to § 26(3) and this paragraph 7 shall require a resolution of the General Meeting adopted by a four-fifths majority of votes in the presence of shareholders representing at least 50% (fifty percent) of the votes plus one vote of the total number of votes in the Company.
8. The amounts specified in the Articles of Association are gross amounts, unless it is expressly stated that they are net amounts.

1. The Company's financial year begins on January 1 and ends on December 31.
2. With the exception of announcements convening the General Meeting and other announcements related to the General Meeting, the Company publishes its announcements in Monitor Sądowy i Gospodarczy (Court and Economic Monitor). Each announcement of the Company should also be displayed at the Company's registered office in a place accessible to employees.
